Born in Stockholm, Sweden, on 9 March 1949

Senior legal advisor of Svenska Handelsbanken AB (publ) with over 25 years' experience in banking and finance.

Mr Köping-Höggård graduated as LLB. from Stockholm University in 1977 and in the same year started his career as legal clerk to a judge at the National Swedish Judiciary.

He was appointed Associate Judge of District Court Huddinge in 1981. In 1987 he joined the Swedish Ministry of Finance as legal expert and principal secretary of the Securities Market Committee, which made a complete reappraisal of legislation on the Swedish securities market (SOU 1989:72). After the Committee had finished its reappraisal in 1989, he returned to the Svea Court of Appeal as Deputy Judge of Appeal. He joined Svenska Handelsbanken in 1990 as Senior Vice President with focus on the capital and securities markets. He was appointed General Counsel of Svenska Handelsbanken 2002, a position he retired from in 2015. During the time he was General Counsel he was also Head of Group Compliance and Head of Anti Money Laundering at various times. Since 2015 he has provided legal advice to senior management of the Bank and Handelsbanken Capital Markets. He will retire from Svenska Handelsbanken in March 2018.

Mr Köping-Höggård's work assignments throughout his career have given him a broad knowledge of legal matters and a very good reputation.
